

Recruitment of Native-speaking English Teacher (EDB NET Scheme)

Maryknoll Convent School has been providing all-round, quality and affordable education for girls since 1925. We are now seeking a dedicated, dynamic and creative Native-speaking English Teacher to join our forward-thinking English panel.

Key responsibilities:

- Collaborate with English Panel members to co-plan and/or co-teach
- Undertake assigned teaching duties and implement good teaching practices
- Lead, organize and conduct co-curricular and extra-curricular activities related to English learning and teaching
- Contribute to school-based curriculum development and professional development activities
- Advise colleagues on the current use of English and how it is shaped by culture
- Attend relevant professional development activities organized and conducted by the NET Section and disseminate the information to the English Panel
- Perform relevant administrative duties as assigned

Qualifications and qualities required:

- A native speaker of English
- Meet the requirements under the EDB's Enhanced NET Scheme in Secondary Schools (<http://www.edb.gov.hk/net>)
- Possess local teaching experience at secondary level
- Familiar with the English Language curriculum of secondary schools in Hong Kong
- Adept at and/or open to using e-Learning tools to facilitate teaching
- An active and contributing member of a school learning community
- A strong team player who can also work independently
- Patient, resourceful and organized

Interviews will start as soon as applications are received.

Please send a cover letter with a detailed resume, expected salary and availability to the Principal, Maryknoll Convent School (Secondary Section), 5 Ho Tung Road, Kowloon or by email to gen_off2@mcs.edu.hk.

(Personal data collected will be used for the purpose of recruitment only)